HEY have Letters at Vienna from Constantinople, which confirm the Defeat of Kouli Kan's Forces, in a late Action with those of the Malecontents in Persia: And that the Imperial Minister the Baron de Dahlman is fet out from Constantinople, but whither is not faid.

They write from Petersburg; that the greatest Part that City has been overflown by the River Neva, g to the swelling of its Waters by a strong Wind N.W. and that M. Rondeau, our Minister at a Court, has received Orders to lay hold of all dions that offer, to ftrengthen the good Undering between that Court and Vienna. Count mich was expected every Moment at Petersburg Moscow. An Italian Lord is arrived there, who aid to be a Venetian Nobleman, deputed thither nthe Senate, with an Offer from the Republick, ea contracting Party in the Treaty negociating wenthe Courts of Russia, Germany, and Poland, th, 'tis said, is to be a Quadruple Alliance, wherethe Ottoman Empire on all Sides, both by Land Sea. The principal Point which the Republick in View, is to re-take the Morea, which the ks took in 1715, and have kept ever fince by me of the Treaty of Paffarowitz in 1718.

ners from Dresden say, that Mr. Robinson the ish Minister, who is returning for the present a Vienna, arrived there the 28th ult. O. S. had a at Audience of the King on the 3eth, by whom ws most graciously received, and assured of his at Regard for his Britannick Majesty, and next she had the Honour to dine with both the King Queen. Tho' the King of Poland neglects no tunity to shew his Love of Peace, his Mafeems not inclin'd, as 'twas reported, to give is Rights to the Succession of Juliers and Bergue, chhe thinks it would not be possible for him to ounce, without being responsible for the same to Posserity; and therefore he is preparing to affert Pretentions upon that Article in the ensuing Ne-

Isfall given out at Hamburgh, That the Duke folhein Gottorp is to marry one of the Princesses he Court of Great Britain; and that the Baron de cke, one of his Ministers, is shortly to come hiwith a Commission for to negociate the same, ther with his Excellency Baron Hamilton, that is Envoy Extraordinary at this Court. This e's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court. te is about thirty-five Years of Age, and is Son of hia, Favourite Sister to Charles XII. late King weden, and to the present Queen; to which om his Highness will, probably, succeed, afhe Death of their present Majestics. The said e was a great Favourite at the Russian Court, in Reigns of Peter the Great, and Katherine, and myd in 1725, the Prince's Anne, Sifter of the Peter II. Emperor of Russia, who died about can fince, leaving Iffue one Son.

cording to Letters from Hanover, his Majesty's sets in that Electorate, not only continued the lick Prayers appointed for his Majefly's good Voytohis British Dominions; but had render'd Publish British Dominions; but had render'd Publish light Storm at Sea.

te late Storm at Sea.
Is faid that the Emperor, for the better securing Peace of Europe, has not only granted his Guato the Infante Don Carlos, for the Two Sicilies, in case of his Death to the Infantes his Brothers, raing to the Order of Primogeniture. And 'tis im'd from Italy, That the Acts of Cession and santy being exchanged on both Sides at Pontreson the 19th ult. O. S. with very great Comince, Part of the Spanish Troops that were in cany, were already embark'd at Leghorn, and for Valencia; the Imperialists were actument on the March, as fast as the great Spows, and on the March, as fast as the great Snows, and Badness of the Roads, would permit them, to Possession of the said Dutchy. The Duke de ge un last arrived the Mails due from Holland and Montemar was set out for Port de la Spezza, or Genoa, for Spain, and is very probably by this Time at Madrid.

They write from the faid Court, That their Differences with Portugal are in a fair Way of Accommodation; which, they fay, is owing to the Plan proposed to their Catholick and Portuguese Majesties, by the Court of England. The Letters from Paris fay, That the Cardinal de Fleury is so disturbed at the Reports raised and spread by some People, to the Disadvantage of M. Chauvelin, Keeper of the Seals, and Secretary of State for foreign Affairs, that he lately declar'd in Presence of a great many of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, That nothing in the World was more false than those Reports; and that he was equally concern'd and furprized to bear them published: That the said Minister had always rendered himself worthy of the King's Esteem, Considence, and Affection; and that his Majesty continued to honour him with his Good Will. The next Day the Cardinal, after having given Audience to the Foreign Ministers, told them, That it would not be possible for him to have the Pleasure of dining with them that Day; but that M. Chauvelin would do his Honours for him: And accordingly he gave them a very splendid Repast.

From the London Gazette.

Petersburgh, Dec. 18. This Court continues to make great Preparations for carrying on the War with Vi-gour the next Campaign. Several Thousand Sea-men, and others belonging to the Navy and Admi-ralty, have been sent of late from hence to Tabaroff near Veronitz, and to Branska in the Ukraine, where a great Number of double Chaloupes or large Boats are building, to be employed next Spring on the Rivers Don and Dnieper; each of which Boats is to be large enough to carry about 100 Soldiers, and fix small Cannon. Fill the Arrival of Field-Marshal Count Munich, who is foon expected, it is thought no Resolution will be taken, on which Side to attack the Turks, in case an End is not put to the War this Winter. This being Princess Elizabeth's Birth-day, who is now enter'd into the 28th Year of her Age, in the Morning the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, went to make their Compliments to her Highness on the Occasion; and at Night there is to be a Ball at Court.

Hamburgh, Jan. 15. Sir Cyril Wich, Bart. his Britannick Majeffy's Envoy Fxtraordinary to the Circle of Lower Saxony, who some Time since obtained his Majesty's Permission to make a Tour to Paris, in order to settle there some private Affairs, arrived here from thence on the 12th Inftant.

Hague, Jan. 18, N. S. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange received publick Visits and Compliments to Day, for the first Time since her Lyingin, being in very good Health. There are now in the Texel 19 Ships for the East-Indies, and a great Number of Merchant Ships, which have been hin-der'd these two Months from putting to Sea by contrary Winds.

LONDON.

Whitehall, Jan. 15. Early this Morning Mr. Carrington, one of his Majesty's Messengers arrived at St. James's, with the agreeable News, that on Thursday, 8 Good Friday, day he sach lestens between Nine and Ten of Check. day the 13th Inftant, between Nine and Ten o'Clock in the Morning, the King embarked on board the Carolina Yacht, at Helvoersluys, and immediately fet Sail, in Company with all the other Yachts, for England, the Wind being then at S.W. by W. and that his Majesty landed in good Health at Leostess in Suffolk, Yefterday at Noon; that Night his Majefly lay at Stratford in the same County, and this Morning about Six his Majesty set forward, and passing in an open Chaife through the City of London, arrived at St. James's about Two this Afternoon, (God be praised) in persect Health. At the several Places through which his Majesty passed, the People expressed their Satisfaction at his Majesty's safe Arrival, by all possible Demonstrations of Joy; and this Even-ng there were Bonfires and Illuminations in the Cities of London and Westminster.

Yesterday there was a numerous and splendid Ap-pearance at Court, of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to pay their Compliments of Congratulation to his Majesty, on his fafe Return to his British Dominions.

The same Day a grand Council was held at Sr. James's, at which the Queen was present, when her Majesty resign'd to the King her Commission, which appointed her Sole Guardian of this Realm during his Majesty's Absence.

The same Day their Majesties, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the Princesses Amelia and Caroline, dined in Publick, in the great State Ball-Room, before a great Number of Spectators; and, we hear, their Majesties will continue Dining in Publick every Sunday, during their Stay at St. lames's.
